

Occupy Wall St. and Everywhere to End U.S. Wars for Empire!

“YOUR GOVERNMENT enforces a culture of greed, bigotry, intolerance and ignorance.”

~ from the Call to Drive Out the Bush Regime (2005).

Also part of the 99%: protesters in Afghanistan and Los Angeles against the U.S. occupation in Kabul on the 10th anniversary of the invasion

TENS OF THOUSANDS of people in the U.S., taking the lead from millions in the Middle East, are “occupying” public spaces, seeking change in the world as it is, standing up to authority, power, and blowing the ceiling off expectations that the vast disparity in global income “has to” be as it is. We’ve got to spread these occupations!

Meanwhile, hundreds of thousands of U.S. military, support staff and private contractors are “occupying” two countries in the Middle East, in a mission to enforce, with a vengeance, U.S. domination over the region, employing night raids, torture, and terror towards the civilian population. We’ve got to end those occupations!

FOR THE PAST TEN YEARS:

U.S. OCCUPATIONS, bombs, and secret operations have wreaked havoc in the Middle East since 2001, sold to the public on the basis of being in the “United States’ national interest.” As just one example of the type of war being fought, in 2010 it was revealed the 5th Stryker Brigade’s “Kill Team” went on a shooting spree, hunting down and murdering unarmed Afghan civilians at random and mutilating corpses for fun. U.S./NATO bombing raids kill even more civilians this year than last. The U.S. detains hundreds in Bagram prison in Afghanistan, without charges, lawyers, or rights... and Guantánamo remains
